Program:

Split chapters. Have each chapter write down on a piece of paper everything they think about HoD, any connotations, inside jokes, etc. Include both good things and bad things.

Bring the slips to the program leaders.

Sagee: HoD AZA.

Shelley: Atz' Chaim BBG.

Sagee: Obviously, our chapters have a lot of different opinions on one another. Some are good, but for the most part, not so much.

Shelley: When there is an event with one another, let's be honest, Atz' Chaim, ya'll run. Each chapter sort of disperses to its respective sides of the room.

Sagee: But it doesn't have to be this way.

Shelley: Having good brother sister relations is not only extremely important, but it's more fun!

Sagee: The whole idea of having a brother or sister chapter is support. If everyone supports each other and pushes old ideas out, than we can use each other to succeed and move our chapters forward.

Shelley: The same way your sisters have your back, your brothers can have yours too.

Sagee: Literally!

We divide into 3 groups and do trust falls.

Shelley: See? It isn't that hard to be there for each other. Let's take away all of the old ideas of each other.

*burn or rip the papers*

Sagee: The closer we are the better. What better way to kick it off with some spooey and G n Dub?

Shelley: Spooey sticks together, just like we all will.

*Atz' Chaim and HoD Cheer*

Get ready for G N Dub.

THIS IS THE FINAL OUTLINE. DONE.
